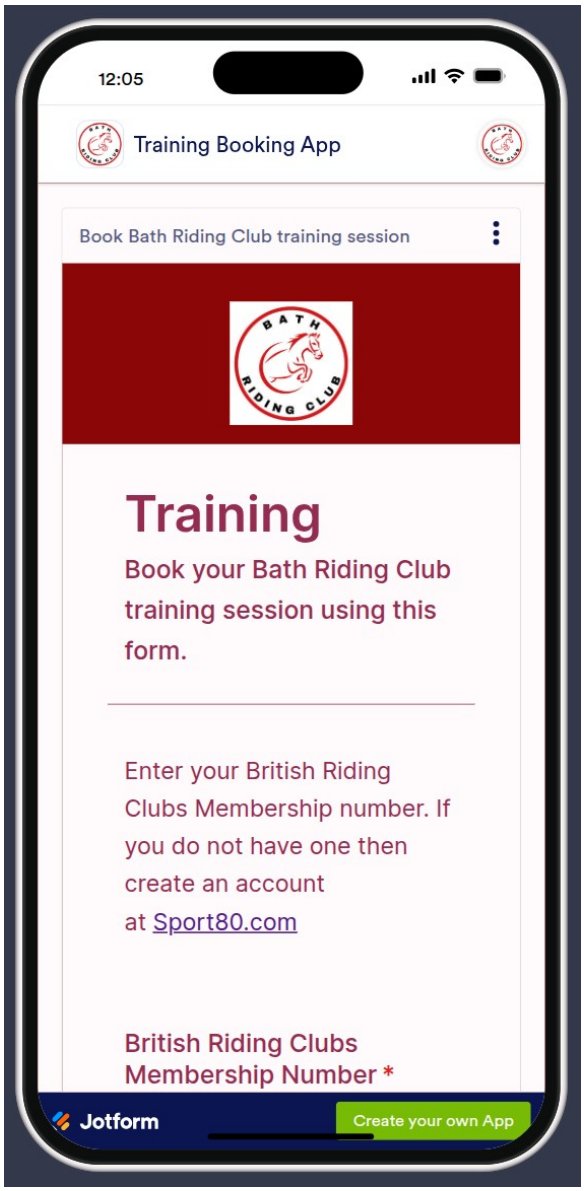
Bath Riding Club

Training Booking App

Training sessions can be booked using an app. Install on your phone using this QR code:

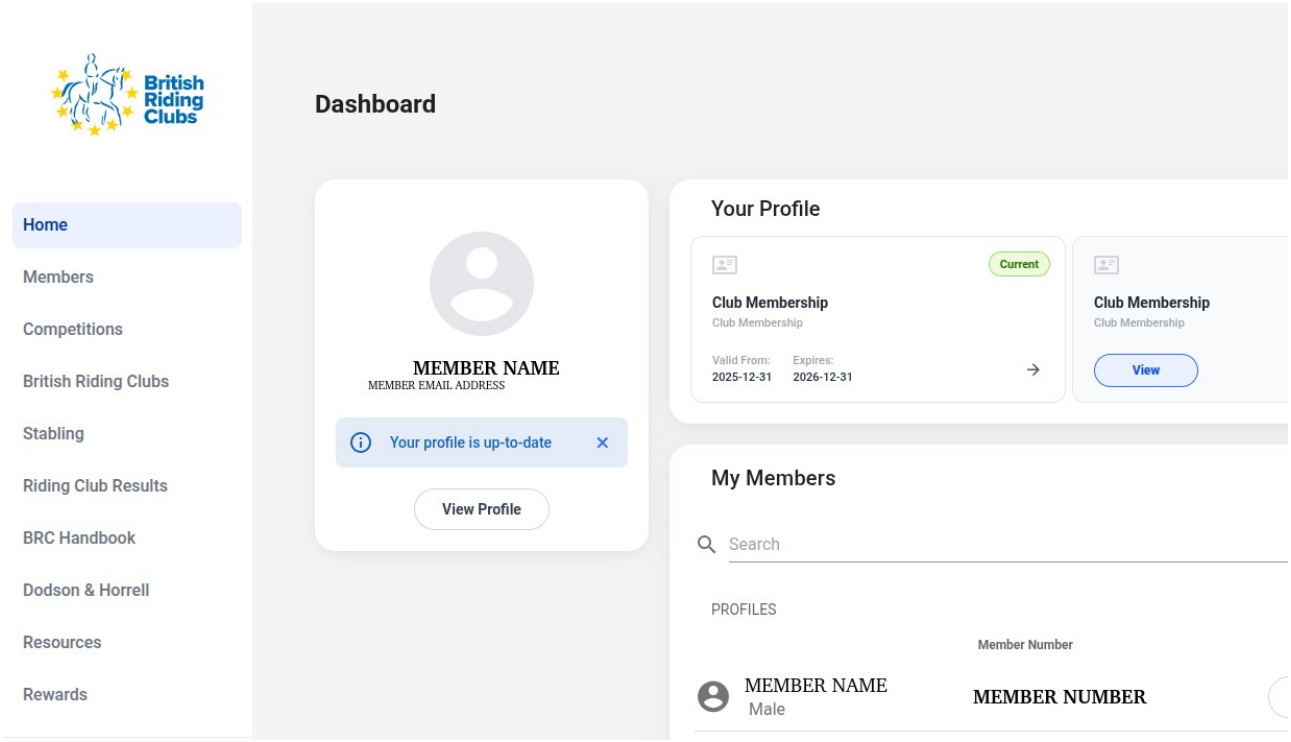
The app notes your training request details and membership information and gives you a unique payment reference to be used in a BACS payment for the session.

When you start the app you will be presented with this screen:



You will need a British Riding Clubs membership number to use the Booking App. Existing members have membership numbers which can be found on the Sport80.com website. New members will need to create an account with Sport80.

Member number can be found in Sport80 website:

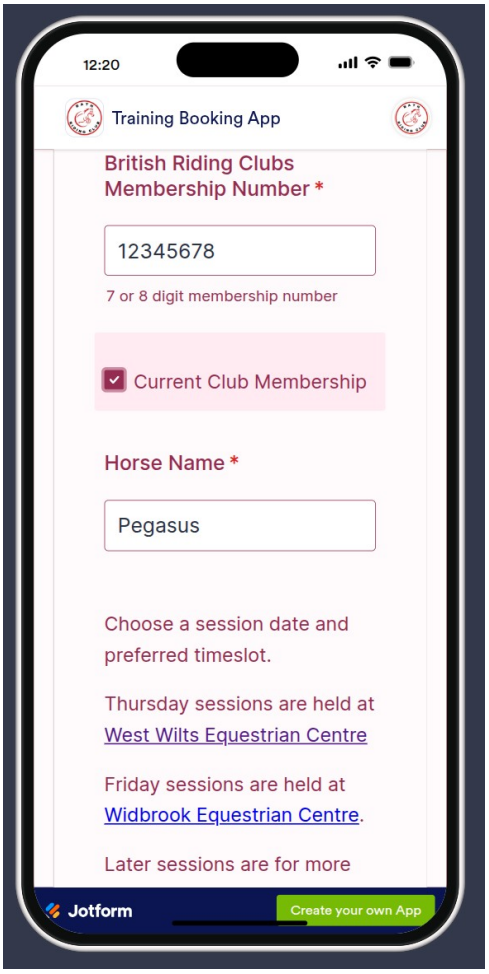


Requesting a training session

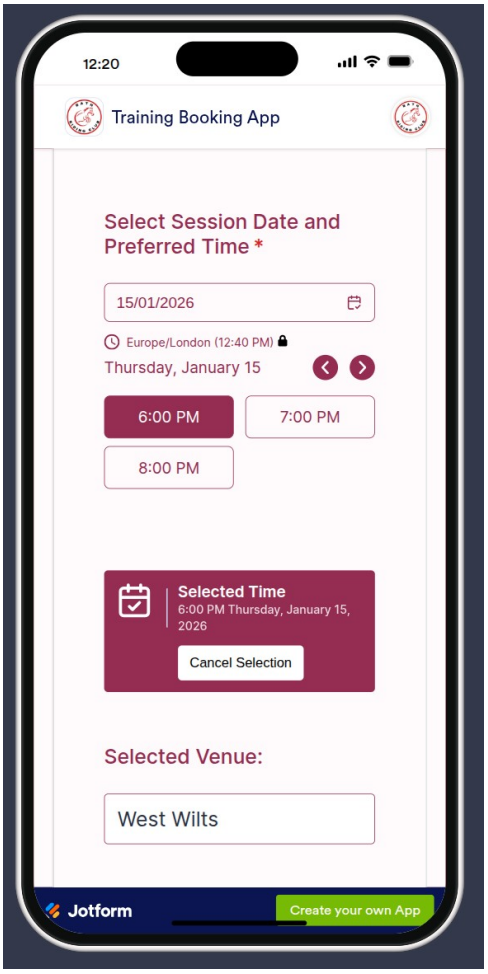
Enter your membership number and tick the Current Club Membership tick box if you have a current valid paid membership with Bath Riding Club.

Enter the name of the horse you will be riding in the training session.

Links to the club website are provided for you to find further training information.



Select the session to wish to attend by selecting a date and then a time slot. Your selected time and the associated training venue will be shown.

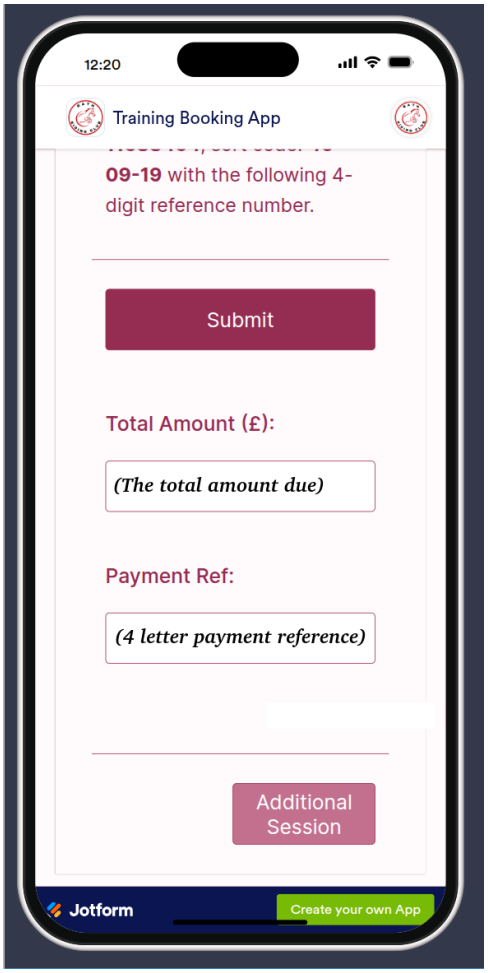


You can cancel your selection and change it to a different date or time slot if you wish.

Scroll down and press the Submit button to make your training request if you are happy with the information you have provided. If you wish to add a second session to the request do not submit yet, press the Additional Session button instead.

The total amount to be paid for the session and the BACS payment reference is shown. This information will also be emailed to you.

The Additional Session button allows you to request one more session. Read the Additional Session section later in this guide.
No more that two sessions can be requested, start the app again to request further sessions if needed.

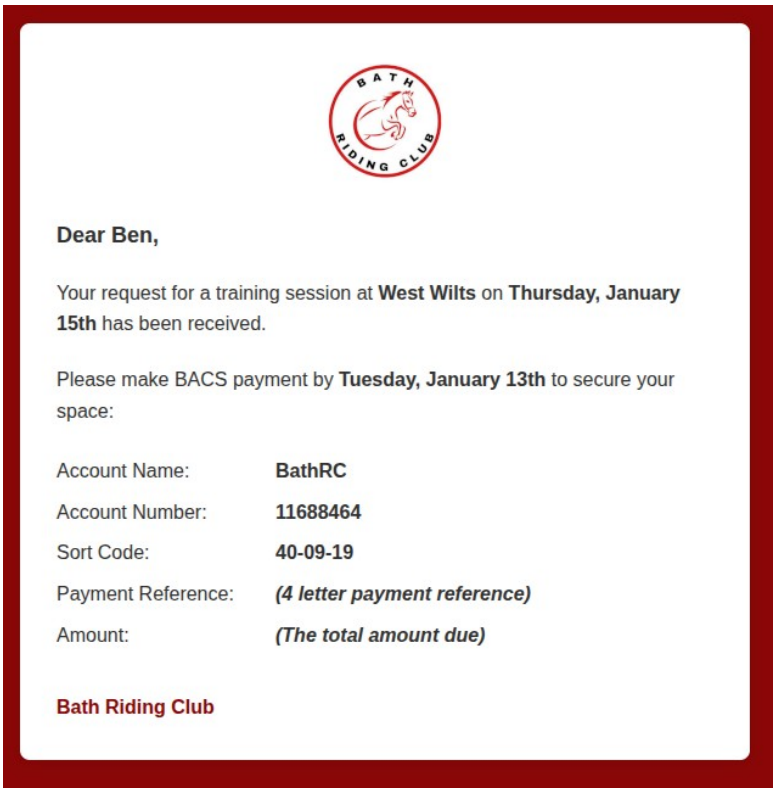


Training Emails

The Training App uses the email address associated with your British Riding Clubs membership, setup in Sport80.com. Emails confirming your request and your training space are sent to you when the necessary information and BACS payment have been processed.

Soon after a training session has been requested an email is sent with the subject: Training Session Request Received - Awaiting Payment

This email confirms that the request has been received and details the BACS payment due to secure the session.



Dear Ben,

Your request for a training session at West Wilts on Thursday, January 15th has been received.

Please make BACS payment by Tuesday, January 13th to secure your space:

Account Name:	BathRC
Account Number:	11688464
Sort Code:	40-09-19
Payment Reference:	(4 letter payment reference)
Amount:	(The total amount due)

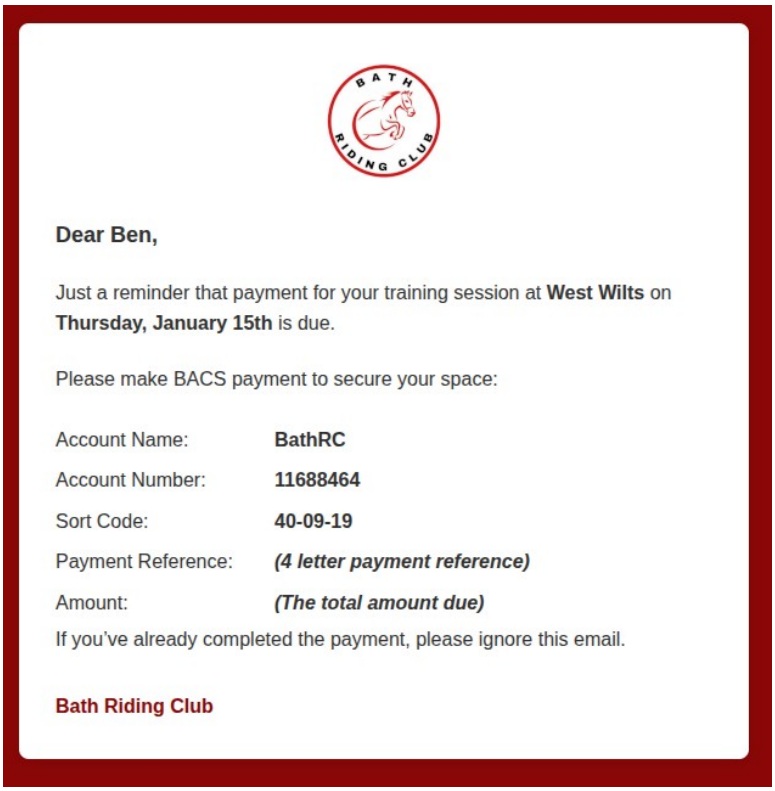
Bath Riding Club

Payment should be received two days before the session. If the payment has not been received and processed by then a reminder email is sent with the subject: Training Session - Payment Now Due

Sessions that have not been paid for are flagged up to the organising club official.



Dear Ben,

Just a reminder that payment for your training session at West Wilts on Thursday, January 15th is due.

Please make BACS payment to secure your space:

Account Name:	BathRC
Account Number:	11688464
Sort Code:	40-09-19
Payment Reference:	(4 letter payment reference)
Amount:	(The total amount due)

If you've already completed the payment, please ignore this email.

Bath Riding Club

When a payment has been received and processed an email is sent with the subject: Training Session Payment Received

Dear Ben,

Your payment for a training session at West Wilts on Thursday, January 15th has been received.

Bath Riding Club

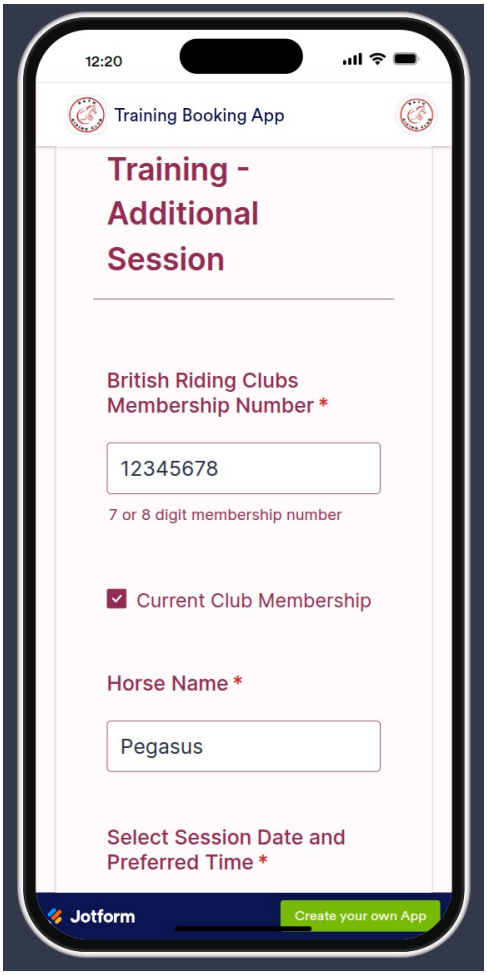
Emails will also contain any problems with the payment received such as the wrong amount or if your membership is not valid at the time of the training session. They will also show information on the two sessions if an Additional Session is included in the request.

Additional Session

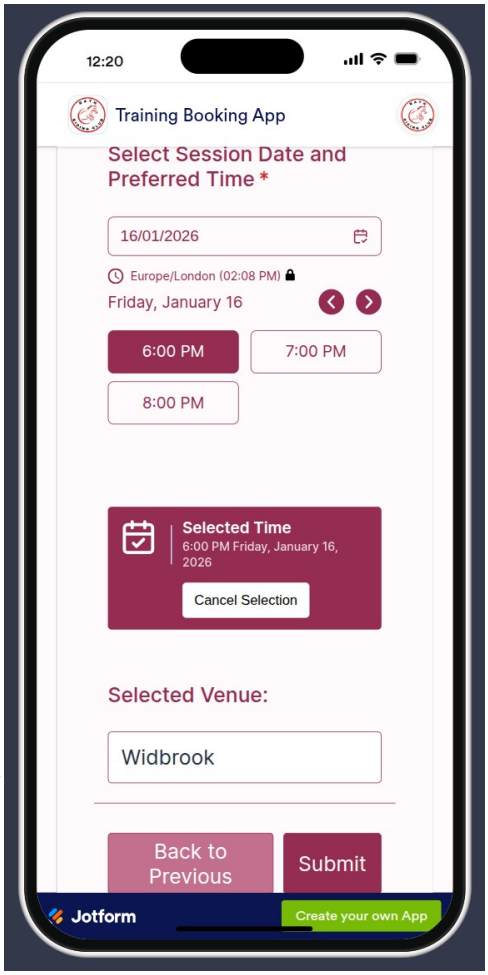
Two sessions can be booked in a single training request. When combined, the sessions are both paid with a single BACS payment.

The Additional Session page is shown:

Enter the membership number, current club membership and horse name for the additional session as before.



Enter the date and time slot as before. The selected time and venue are shown for the additional session.



Use Back to Previous to return to the first session or Submit to make the requests for the two sessions if you are happy with the information provided.